Joe Becton & Antoine Watts Present

“Music of the Civil War”

Sat., Feb. 9 * 10:30AM - 1:30 PM

The Friends of Abraham Staats House and South Bound Brook Historic Preservation Advisory Commission invite you to our annual "Tory Jack Day" program on Sat, Feb. 9, featuring performers Joseph Becton and Antoine Watts. Mr. Becton, retired National Park Service Interpretive Park Ranger and owner of Joe Becton Tours and Historical Services (Certified Master Guide/Assoc. of Philadelphia Tour Guides), is recognized for setting a standard of excellence in interpretation and in connecting Americans to our national parks through narrative and music. Mr. Watts, historical interpreter, performer and musician, accompanies Mr. Becton in the presentation. The program, “Music of the Civil War,” illustrates through words and performance the development of this American art form and will begin at 11AM. Seating is limited; house opens 10:30AM. Following the program, tour the rooms of the historic Abraham Staats House until 1:30PM. Light refreshments will be served.

Admission - $10; Children 12 & under - free.
